children, one of whom is still living in Lehi. Mrs. Earl (Blanche) Roberts. After working in a sugar factory in Lehi, Utah, for 26 years, he moved to Heber in 1925 to run a shoe repair business. After the death of his first wife he married Elsie Lamb of Farmington, Utah, in 1930. They reared three children while residing in Heber: Mrs. Glenn A. (Carol) McDonald, Mrs. Lynn (Elaine) Herron, and Mrs. Leland B. (Rosa Lee) Ivers. He continued his shoe repair business until 1941, when he retired. 380

the present manager, Harold Smith. Both as A. Hatch and Company and the Heber City Exchange, this business is probably the city's longest in operation.

One of the most prosperous business sections in Heber during the years is the area known as "Hatch's Row." This section included buildings between Abram Hatch's residence and his store on Main Street. Some of the businesses along this row have been a harness and shoe shop operated by Danielson and Dahlman, the A. L. Davis barber shop, a saddle and harness shop owned by Nephi Forman, the Wave printing and publishing offices, J. W. Buckley's men's store, the Smith Meat and Grocery operated by George Smith & Sons, Earl and Sylvan Smith, and others. Today, the "Hatch Row" includes the Aloma Motel built on the old Hatch homesite, the J. C. Penney store, Seiter Bakery, Stanley Title Insurance Company, Barker's Jewelry, Palace Drug, U. S. Post Office and Heber Exchange.

John Turner and his sons also operated a successful business corner on Main Street and Second North, which included Turner's Store, and the Turner Opera House mentioned in Chapter Twelve. When the Turners went out of business, the Golden Rule Store which later was the J. C. Penney Company opened its first Heber store at this location. The Lee Johnson service station now occupies the site.

Another pioneer business in Heber was the Buell's Store. The founder, Frederick O. Buell came to Utah in 1872 with his grandmother, Persinda H. Buell Kimball, one of the wives of Heber C. Kimball. He had been living in Missouri but came west with his grandmother when his father died. He stayed in Salt Lake and lived with Pres. Brigham Young until 1876 and then returned to Missouri where he apprenticed as a tin and copper smith. Visiting with an aunt in Summit County in 1882, he met President Wilford Woodruff who told him there was a good opening in Heber for a tinsmith. On May 14, 1883 he walked into Heber with his tools and rented a small shop at 143 N. Main. His business grew, and he eventually purchased the property and built a building. In 1884 he added a small stock of groceries and candy in addition to his tin-smith business, and this proved so successful that he opened a general merchandise business in 1894 with an even larger building. He built a community dance hall on the second floor which was in constant use. He continued in his business until he retired on January 1, 1920 and moved to Provo. His son, Owen, continued to operate the store and added a fresh meat department. In 1925 James T. Simkins, a brother-in-law, purchased an interest in the store and it was incorporated as Buell & Simkins. The corporation was later dissolved and it became Buells Food Store. Another remodeling took place in 1934 when the store joined the Independent Grocers Assn. (I.G.A.) and opened the

HAROLD H. SMITH

Harold H. Smith, son of Samuel Francis and Lida Jane Hatch Smith, was born October 21, 1910, at Snow Flake, Arizona.

483

He married Mabel Dorine Nielson on June 1, 1938.

They had four children, one son and three daughters.

He was a businessman, Church leader, and seminary teacher in Heber City, Utah.

Harold H. Smith came to Wasatch County in August of 1941, as a teacher in the LDS seminary program. He served in that institution a total of 11 years, nine of which he was principal. Upon leaving the Church school system he devoted his full time as president and manager of the Heber City Exchange Company. In that capacity he has been a forward-looking merchant and has kept this oldest of Wasatch County businesses a progressing and growing institution.

Mr. Smith served a term on the Heber City Council and was instrumental in the building of Heber Valley Airport and in the passing of zoning ordinances in the city. During his period of service the first asphalt paving of the city streets was done, the water mains of the city enlarged, and the Wasatch Recreation Assn. was created.

Mr. Smith served on the Wasatch County Fair Board several years and was executive secretary of the county celebration of the Utah State Centennial Committee. He was a member of the Heber Lions Club for 10 years, serving as its club president, zone chairman and deputy district governor. He has served several terms as a director of the Wasatch-Summit Knife and Fork Club and as club president for two years. He was one of the organizers of the Wasatch Chamber of Commerce and has served a term as director.

Active in his Church affiliation, Mr. Smith served nine years on the Stake Sunday School Board, six of which he was superintendent. On January 2, 1955, he was

JESSE LEVI HIATT

Jesse Levi Hiatt, third son of Ethel and Elizabeth Sarah Hiatt, was born at Wilford, Idaho, on August 9, 1889. His family moved from Idaho to Vernal, Utah County, Utah, where he spent his childhood days. He attended elementary schools, also the Utah Academy at Vernal. Later he attended Northwestern University at Chicago, where he enrolled in the school of pharmacy. He became a registered pharmacist in Utah during the year 1913.

He married Essie Jayne Rich of Vernal, Utah, on March 23, 1911. To this union were born five sons and one daughter. The first child, Ronald Jesse, passed away at the age of four and was buried at Springville, Utah. The other four sons are now living in Heber: Maron R., Bernell R., Kent R. and Jay Lucas. The daughter, Nila, lives in Modesto, California.

In 1917, Mr. Hiatt came to Heber from Springville to manage the Palace Drug Store. This store was owned by Edwin D. Hatch, Emil Kohler, Andrew Murdoch, Fred Gibbs and others. Later he became the owner of this store. In a few years the store building was purchased from the Hatch estate. It was remodeled, new stock and fixtures
